 - (i) On August 29, 2014, PS STEPHENSON & CO., P.C. (“STEPHENSON”), the independent registered public accounting firm of Medical International Technology, Inc. (the “Company”) notified the Company that STEPHENSON declined to stand for re-election. STEPHENSON noted changes within their firm and their firm is no longer performing assurance services for issuer clients in their resignation letter to the Company.
 - (ii) The report of STEPHENSON on the financial statements of the Company as of September 30, 2013 and 2012 and for the fiscal years then ended did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles other than an explanatory paragraph as to a going concern.
 - (iii) The Board of Directors of the Company accepted the declination of STEPHENSON.
 - (iv) During the Company’s two most recent fiscal years ended September 30, 2013 and 2012 and the subsequent interim periods through the date of resignation, (a) there were no disagreements with STEPHENSON on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of STEPHENSON, would have caused it to make reference thereto in its reports on the financial statements for such years and (b) there were no “reportable events” as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
 - (v) On October 27, 2014, the Company provided STEPHENSON with a copy of this Current Report and has requested that it furnish the Company with a letter addressing to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. - (i) either: the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company’s financial statements, and either a written report was provided to the Company or oral advice was provided that the new independent registered public accounting firm concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or
- (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement as defined in paragraph 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K or a reportable event as described in paragraph 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
